

Regaining new life after 13 years of his birth..... an exciting story of Baryalai

1

Immobile since birth

Shir Alam- Baryalai's father recalls those shocking moments when he realized that his son was immobile on one side.

First attempt for treatment

First, Shir Alam took his son to a nearby hospital in Baghlan province but to no avail.

3

The wild goose chase.....

Shir Alam visited many hospitals in Kabul to find out a solution but all in vain. All those those fruitless attempts made Shir Alam more anxious.

Below is the summary of his various attempts.

The travel abroad

In a precarious situation, Shir Alam took his son to a neighboring country with lots of hope. He had to sell his vehicle- which was the source of family income. Ultimately; the result was no gain- but pain!

Between hope and despair

Shir Alam came back to Afghanistan in despair. He was simply hopeless. One fine day a relative advised him to visit FMIC as a last attempt. Willy-nilly, Shir Alam visited the office of La Chaine de l'Espoir from where he was referred to FMIC. He could sense some hope from within!

A life-changing moment

The case was referred to Dr Tareq Rahimi who performed surgery under the local block with the help of FMIC anaesthesia Head Dr Rashad Ahmad Akbari. This happened to be the first neurosurgery procedure in Afghanistan with a normal level of consciousness.

A miracle for Shir Alam and family

On the second day of surgery, Barlayali smiled and gradually started moving. He is now walking normally. Shir Alam could not believe this but his emotions were telling the story. With a sigh of relief and sense of hope- he thanked FMIC and La Chaine for a miraculous treatment yet free of cost!
